Program guidelines

This program enables cultural heritage organisations to deliver projects or annual programs that:

- preserve Tasmania's moveable cultural heritage
- develop and share high-quality cultural heritage experiences
- create opportunities for Tasmanian volunteers and museum professionals
- connect with and inspire audiences, and the wider community.

It also provides funding towards the purchase of materials for collection management.

Organisations can submit one application per round.

For more information, please visit Cultural heritage organisations.

To apply for support from Arts Tasmania's museum professionals see Roving Curators.

Eligibility

This program supports Tasmanian cultural heritage organisations, including galleries and museums, with permanent collections that are publicly owned and publicly accessible. Applicants must meet Arts Tasmania's general eligibility requirements.

Applications will not be accepted from:

- privately owned collections
- federal government collections
- Tasmanian Government Business Enterprises, and;
- Tasmanian Government Departments.

Organisations in receipt of multi-year support from Arts Tasmania are not eligible to apply to other Arts Tasmania programs for the term of the multi-year agreement.

Eligible costs and activities

Organisations can apply for funding towards activities that improve access to, and care for, collections such as:

- archival materials
- education and public programs
- marketing and promotion including graphic design and printing costs
- permanent, temporary, or touring exhibitions
- product development
- software licenses
- wages and fees for museum professionals.

Arts Tasmania expects that museum professionals are paid fairly for their work. For more information, please visit wages and fees.

Permanent, fixed-term or casual employees of any part of the Creative Industries, Sport and Visitor Economy Division of the Building Tasmania with regular hours that exceed 0.3 of a full-time load) cannot receive payment through Arts Tasmania's programs.

Overdue acquittals

If your organisation has received support from Arts Tasmania in the past and the acquittal for this support is now overdue, it is not eligible to receive more support until all overdue acquittal reports are submitted and approved.

I confirm that I have read and understood the eligibility requirements for this program. *

Assessment criteria

Arts Tasmania uses peer assessors from the Cultural and Creative Industries Expert Register. Peer assessors are people who work in, or are engaged with, the arts and cultural sectors such as curators, administrators, or other professionals.

All eligible applications to this round will be assessed by a panel of museum professionals against the criteria of:

QUALITY

Does the activity:

- include strong ideas and/or processes?
- develop the capacity of the Tasmanian cultural heritage sector? (where relevant)
- include experienced volunteers and personnel, or those with potential to develop and grow?

PLANNING

Is the activity:

- timely, relevant, and achievable?
- properly budgeted (with appropriate wages and fees)?
- supported by confirmed resources such as venues, funding, or equipment?
- supported by strong partnerships or collaborations?

BENEFIT

Does the activity:

- enable opportunities for Tasmanian museum professionals?
- connect with Tasmanian audiences? (where relevant)
- connect with the wider community? (where relevant)
- develop or access new audiences, networks, or markets? (where relevant)

For more information on assessment, please see how decisions are made.

Tell us about your activity.

Please include information on:

- what will be delivered with grant funds
- key concepts, ideas, or themes
- key dates or milestones
- why this activity matters (to your organisation, the sector, audiences, or community)
- how it will benefit your organisation, or the community
- the target audience and their expected experience (if applicable).

About your activity *

Word count:
no more than 800 words

Tell us about your organisation and any others involved in the activity.

Please include information on:

- your organisation and its history
- any others involved in the activity
- why your organisation has chosen to work with those involved
- the relevant skills or expertise of those involved
- any other partnerships in place to support the activity.

You don't need to duplicate information provided in attached CVs or biographies in this section.

Organisations can use this section to explain how the activity aligns with broader organisational strategies or goals.

 No

Please attach plans for working with Aboriginal people and organisations:	Description

Children and young people

If your organisation's planned activity involves children or young people (under the age of 18), either as active participants or a target audience, it must put measures in place to ensure their safety and wellbeing, in line with Tasmania's Child and Youth Safe Standards. This means abiding by all relevant laws and regulations that apply in Tasmania, and any other jurisdictions where the activity is taking place.

Anyone working with children or young people in Tasmania is required to hold a current Registration to Work with Vulnerable People \(RWVP\). People under the age of 16 years are not required to be registered.

For further guidance, please refer to:

- the Tasmanian Government's Child and Youth Organisations Framework (applies to businesses, organisations and sole traders)
- the Tasmanian Government's Keeping Children Safe resource
- Creative Workplaces' information around national laws and standards for children and young people.

If you are unsure about this requirement, please contact Arts Tasmania at grants@arts.tas.gov.au

Does this activity involve children or young people (under the age of 18)? *

- Yes
 No

Please provide evidence of the measures in place to ensure the safety and wellbeing of the children or young people involved in this activity.

This can include evidence of current RWVPs for key personnel, evidence of relevant training undertaken by team members, safety policies or risk management plans.

Assessment of applications

Staff from the department will review all applications to ensure organisations are eligible to apply. We may contact your organisation to ask for more information if eligibility is unclear.

Peers from the Cultural and Creative Industries Expert Register will assess all eligible applications and make a recommendation for funded activities to the Minister for Arts. The Minister will make a decision based on that recommendation.

Decisions made by the Minister for the Arts are final and can only be appealed if the grounds for appeal are met.

For more information, please visit how are decisions made and past decisions.

Appealing a decision

Arts Tasmania may reconsider a decision if the applicant can demonstrate a proven conflict of interest, error in process or discrimination.

For more information, please read the grounds for appeal.

Working with children

Arts Tasmania is committed to encouraging the involvement of young people and children in the arts, both as participants in the creative process and as audience members. Safeguards to prevent exploitation and harm must be in place for any activities that involve children.

If you receive support from Arts Tasmania, and the supported activity involves people under the age of 18, you are obligated to abide by all relevant laws and regulations that apply in Tasmania, and any other jurisdictions where the supported activity is taking place.

If this application is successful, all people involved with this activity will be required to provide a copy of their Registration to Work with Vulnerable People \(RWVP\) card to Arts Tasmania.

Details on the requirements in Tasmania are available at Keeping Children Safe.

Logos and acknowledgement

If your application is successful, your organisation must acknowledge the Tasmanian Government in all promotional material and publications associated with the supported activity. This can include posters, online advertisements, books, CDs, or exhibition catalogues.

For more information please visit logos and acknowledgements.

Right to information

Information you provide to the department and details of assistance may be subject to requests for public disclosure under the Right to Information Act 2009.

Personal information collection

You are providing personal information to the department, which will manage that information in accordance with the Personal Information Protection Act 2004. The personal information collected here will be used by the Department for the purpose of assessing your application and related activities. Failure to provide this information may result in your application not being assessed or records not being properly maintained. The Department may also use the information for related purposes, or disclose it to third parties in circumstances allowed for by law. You have the right to access your personal information by request to the Department and you may be charged a fee for this service.
